A.O. 4.

622E. In addition to retired pay for rank and service, an officer of Our Royal Malta Artillery who has been pronounced permanently unfit for general service on account of a disability attributable to military service may, on retirement, be awarded a disability element of £70 a year for total disablement, or a proportionate amount for a less degree of disablement, down to £14 a year for 20 per cent. disablement. The amount and continuance of the disability element shall depend on the degree and duration of the disablement. A disability element of retired pay shall not be awarded in respect of less than 20 per cent. disablement.

If the officer has less than 30 years' service, the minimum rate of retired pay, apart from disability element, shall be £250 a year, less £7 10s. for each year, or part of a year, short of 30 years, without any rank element. If more favourable to the officer, he may be granted £7 10s. a year for each year of service, together with the rank and disability elements of retired pay.

622F. If an officer of Our Royal Malta Artillery has completed 5 years' service, the service and rank elements of retired pay shall be permanent. If he has completed less than 5 years' service, the service and rank elements shall be payable only so long as the disability is at least 20 per cent. When the disability ceases, or falls below 20 per cent., a final gratuity of £70 for each year of service shall be paid.

The exemption from jury service conceded to members of the Territorial Army by Section XXIII (4) of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, is absolute as regards all juries in Scotland. In the case of juries in England and Wales, however, the enactment referred to must be read in conjunction with the Juries Act, 1922, the effect of which is to make a member of the Territorial Army liable to serve as a juror so long as his name is so marked in the Register of Electors. (See para. 420.) 419. Os.C. squadrons, batteries, companies, etc., of the Territorial Army, and adjutants, are authorized to sign certificates of membership of the Territorial Army on A.F. E 541. Members of the Territorial Army requiring these certificates should apply for them to their immediate C.O. 2. England and Wales. 420. The names of persons qualified and liable to serve on juries, or qualified to serve on special juries, are marked by the registration officer with the letters "J" or "SJ", as the case may be, in the Autumn Register of Electors each year. Every member of the Territorial Army who has on joining, or who afterwards acquires, the legal qualification for jury service as defined in para. 421, should apply to his immediate C.O., as early as possible, for a certificate of membership on A.F. E 541, and should at once forward it to the Registration Officer of the Parliamentary County or	9 Gen. No. 1508

Borough in which he resides, together with a claim for jury exemption. He should also every year, while serving in the Territorial Army, ascertain personally that his name has not been inadvertently marked in the Electors Lists (i.e., the Provisional Register of Electors), which is available for inspection in the Registration Officer's office, and the Chief Post Office or other convenient place in the district, from 15th July to 11th August. If his name has been wrongly marked in the Electors Lists, he should apply to the Registration Officer on or before 10th August to have the mark against his name removed. If the Registration Officer refuses to comply with the application, or fails to notify the applicant before 15th September, the applicant should apply to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction for a declaration to the effect that he ought not to be marked as a juror. Such application must be made within 14 days from the date of the Registration Officer's refusal, or, if a decision has not been received on or before 15th September, within 14 days after that date.

Every member who has claimed exemption should give notice to the Registration Officer on leaving the Territorial Army.

421. Provided that they are registered as parliamentary electors, the following persons are qualified, and, if not exempted, are liable to serve on juries in England and Wales :—

- (a) Every owner of real property of the yearly value of £10 ; every holder of a lease for 21 years or longer, or determinable on a life or lives, of the annual value of £20 ; and every person who is rated at £20 a year (in Middlesex £30) is qualified to be a common juror.
- (b) In the City of London, every householder or occupier of a shop, warehouse, counting house, chambers or office, for the purpose of trade or commerce within the city, having property of the value of £100, is qualified to be a common juror.
- (c) Every "esquire" or person of higher degree, bankers, merchants, occupiers of private houses rated at £100 in a town of 20,000 inhabitants, or £50 elsewhere ; occupiers of premises (not a farm) rated at £100, or of a farm rated at £300, are qualified to be special jurors.

A.O. 63. National Health Insurance.—1. Consequent on the setting up of the Irish Free State, the system of Health Insurance in the Irish Free State became separated, with effect from 1st April, 1922, from the system carried out elsewhere in the British Isles. As a transitional measure, however, the administration of the benefits of insured persons resident in Great Britain who were members of societies whose head offices were situated in the Free State continued to be administered by those societies up to 30th June, 1923. After that date, such persons were obliged to look to a society or other body in Great Britain in all matters relating to their health insurance.

2. Any soldier, therefore, who was, or is, at the time of his enlistment, resident in the area now constituting the Irish Free State, will become a member of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund as from 1st July, 1923, or from the date of enlistment, whichever is the later, and will continue to be a member of that fund so long as he remains a serving soldier. A claim for maternity benefit submitted by the wife of such a soldier will accordingly be paid by the paymaster, acting on behalf of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund, in the usual way.

ARMY ORDERS.

Army Order No. 93 was published specially on 29th March, 1924.

A.O. 93. Revision of Officers' 1919 Emoluments on 1924. account of variations in the Cost of Living.—

48
Gen No.

1. On the introduction of the new scales of pay and non-effective emoluments in 1919, it was provided that 20 per cent. of the rate of pay, etc., of officers would be subject to revision according to variations, up or down, in the cost of living, and that the first revision would take place in 1924.

2. It has now been decided, in view of the fall in the index figures for cost of living since 1919, that a reduction of approximately $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. shall be made, to take effect from 1st July, 1924, in the rates of both pay and non-effective emoluments.

3. This reduction will not be made in the case of other ranks, their present rates having been granted in 1919 without any similar condition.

4. An Army Order will be issued in due course, with tables giving the actual rates of pay and half-pay, and the precise reduction in other non-effective emoluments.

5. The next similar revision will be made as from 1st July, 1927.

ARMY ORDERS NOW PUBLISHED FOR THE FIRST TIME.

Employees in the pay of the War Department are forbidden to accept invitations to appear as expert witnesses in private lawsuits to give evidence on matters of which they have acquired knowledge in the course of, and in connection with, their official duties. It should be understood that, if the employee has committed any act of dishonesty or has otherwise acted discreditably, he will be dismissed. Such action will be without prejudice to any prosecution on the part of the War Department in cases where evidence exists as to misappropriation of public moneys. Pending a decision on the case, the employee should be continued in his post unless there is prima facie reason to believe that public moneys have been or are likely to be involved, in which case he should be suspended. In no circumstances, however, should any civilian employee who is bankrupt or insolvent continue to be employed on duties involving the handling of public money.

The provisions of this paragraph apply equally to other employees who are not established, except that in such a case the G.O.C.* may exercise his discretion in disposing of it without reference to the War Office.

A.O.204. Revision of Officers' 1919 Emoluments on Account of Variations in the Cost of Living.

Gen. No.

1. With reference to the announcement in Army Order 93 of 1924 that the pay, half pay and retired pay of officers will be reduced by $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. with effect from 1st July, 1924, it is notified that a Royal Warrant is being issued dealing with half pay and retired pay, but that it is not yet possible to announce definitely, with full detail, the particular rates and classes of pay to which the reduction will be applied.

Meanwhile, pending the issue of a Royal Warrant containing full particulars, Army agents and other paying offices will proceed as follows with effect from 1st July, 1924 :—

2. Provisionally, and subject to adjustment as may be necessary when the Royal Warrant is issued, the deduction of $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. will be applied to all daily or annual rates of pay, including consolidated rates of pay, the additions to normal pay for staff officers under Article 216 of the Pay Warrant, 1922, and the additions to and deductions from pay under Articles 277, 278 and 282 of the Pay Warrant, 1922, but excluding the pay of non-European officers of the Hong Kong—Singapore Brigade, Royal Artillery.

3. Pending further instructions the deduction will not be applied to rates of pay issuable with half pay or retired pay, to the daily or annual additions to regimental pay admissible to staff and educational officers (e.g., the 5s. for the Small Arms and Machine Gun Experimental Establishment under Article 226), to additions to pay for brevet ranks, to acting staff pay (except that issuable under Articles 309 to 311 of the Pay Warrant), additional pay, language allowance of European officers of the Hong Kong—Singapore Brigade, Royal Artillery.

lery, medical specialists' pay, charge pay, coast pay, A.O. 204 command pay, corps pay, engineer pay, extra duty pay, 1924 signal pay, station or working pay. In the event of the continued.
 5½ per cent. reduction being made applicable to all or any of these classes of pay, such reduction will take effect from 1st July, 1924.

4. In the case of the reduced daily rates, fractions of one penny will be adjusted to the nearest even number of pence, and odd numbers of pence will be raised to the even number next above. Annual rates will be adjusted in a similar manner to the nearest multiple of ten shillings.

5. The rates of pay authorized in the Royal Warrant of 4th April, 1922, as amended by the Royal Warrants of 30th August, 1922, 27th March, 1923, and 25th May, 1923, for officers of the Territorial Army or Militia or retired regular officers appointed to the staff of, or as adjutants in, the Territorial Army will similarly be reduced by 5½ per cent. from 1st July, 1924, with the exception of the rate of £150 a year authorized in the Royal Warrant of 30th August, 1922, for a Deputy-Assistant Director of Veterinary Services in the Territorial Army.

6. When the Royal Warrant giving full details of the reductions to be made in officers' pay is issued, any necessary adjustments referred to in paragraph 2 above in the rates provisionally reduced will be made with effect from 1st July, 1924.

7. The pay of members of Queen Alexandra's
 Imperial Military Nursing Service and Queen Alexandra's Military Families Nursing Service will be reduced on account of variations in the cost of living with effect from 1st July, 1925, when the deduction of 5½ per cent.
 will be applied, the next revision thereafter being made as in the case of officers' pay from 1st July, 1927.

8. For the information of officers and the guidance of Army Agents and Paymasters, a table has been prepared showing the effect of the reduction on the rates principally in use, and is given in the Appendix.

continued.

2. Six questions will be set, of which four only will be answered. Of the four answered not less than one will deal with peace, and one with war.

3. The questions will, as far as possible, take the form of problems with which an officer up to and including the rank of colonel might have to deal.

4. In order to pass, a candidate will be required to obtain .5 of the total marks allotted.

A candidate who obtains .8 of the total marks allotted will have this fact recorded against his name in the list published at the termination of the examination.

Part II.

1. The examination will be conducted by a board of officers detailed from the War Office for home commands and by the G.O.C.-in-C. for commands abroad.

The president of the board will be a deputy director of medical services or an assistant director of medical services, or failing these a lieutenant-colonel, R.A.M.C. One member of the board will be a staff officer or an officer who has had recent staff experience. The officer selected should have served on both the general and administrative branches of the staff and should not be below the rank of major. The other members of the board will be R.A.M.C. officers not below the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

In no case will more than 12 candidates be examined at one time. If the candidates number over 8 the board will not consist of less than a president and 3 members; if 8 or under, a president and 2 members will be the minimum number required.

2. One military campaign will be selected annually, for study, and will be detailed in January Army Orders.

A staff tour for the purposes of this examination will be based on the campaign selected for the year. The staff tour should extend over at least three days.

The examining board will draw up the necessary schemes. A candidate will be allowed a period of not less than one week in which to write his appreciation of the original scheme, and for the purposes of this appreciation he will be called upon to assume the appointment of the senior administrative medical officer of an independent force.

In all other phases of the tour he will be detailed to

A.O. 225 such appointment or appointments as he might be called 1924 upon to hold as a lieutenant-colonel, R.A.M.C., or

3. With the exception of the original appreciation, which may be written at home, the work of each candidate will be supervised on the ground by a member of the board.

In writing the original appreciation a candidate may refer to any book. In working out other problems set during the staff tour a candidate may consult the Field Service Pocket Book.

The board will express their opinion, based on the work performed during the staff tour, including the appreciation as to a candidate's fitness for promotion, and will classify candidates as "failed", "passed", or "distinguished". In classifying the candidates the board will be guided by the principles laid down in Appendix X (III) (ii). The opinion of the board will be recorded on a separate A.F. B 105 for each candidate.

The board will write on foolscap a general criticism of the work performed and a special criticism of the work of any candidate which is markedly below the average, and will forward such criticisms with the proceedings, but under a separate and confidential cover, for the information of the G.O.C.-in-C. and the War Office.

4. All documents and signatures must be dated, and the dates on which a candidate was examined must be stated on the form.

5. The proceedings and A.Fs. B 105 will be forwarded by the president of the board to the G.O.C.-in-C., who, if he is satisfied that the examination has been conducted in accordance with the regulations, will attach a certificate to that effect to the proceedings.

6. If the proceedings are in order, the G.O.C.-in-C. will—

- (i) retain the proceedings ;
- (ii) forward to the War Office the general and any special criticism of the work performed, and A.F. B 105 for each candidate ;
- (iii) forward to each candidate a copy of the certificate extracted from A.F. B 105.

7. In the case of any irregularity in the conduct of the examination, the G.O.C.-in-C. will forward the proceedings to the War Office with an explanatory statement, and the Army Council will decide whether the examination will stand or be annulled.

8. The annulment of the examination will not count A.O. 225

9. A.F. B 105 will be filed with a candidate's continued.

Where it is the practice for regular officers to take batmen to a school, T.A. officers may take to the school, as a batman, a man of the Territorial Army (of the rank of private), the cost of his travelling, pay, etc., being defrayed from the T.A. training grant of the G.O.C. in-C. Where a staff of civilian servants is maintained at a school of instruction but is insufficient to meet the requirements of T.A. officers attending, the staff should be increased, as required, in the proper proportion, the extra cost so incurred being charged to the T.A. training grant of the G.O.C.-in-C.

A.O. 285. The Provision of a Supplementary Reserve for 1924. the Regular Army.

I.—GENERAL.

1. Object.—It has been decided to form a Supplementary Reserve with the object of completing on mobilization the requirements of certain arms and branches of the Regular Army for which the existing First Class Army Reserve does not provide. As these requirements are mainly technical, so the character of the Supplementary Reserve will be technical. The non-technical portion comprises officers required for the fighting arms.

2. Designation.—The statutory authority for the provision of a Supplementary Reserve is the Reserve Forces

* The instructions in this Army Order will in due course appear in regulations which will replace the existing Regulations for Officers of the Special Reserve of Officers and for the Special Reserve, 1911.

Act of 1882, and the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act of 1907, as modified by the Territorial Army and Militia Act of 1921. Under the latter Act the use of the term "Special Reserve" has been abolished in favour of the term "Militia," and the Reserve which will now be formed will therefore be in law "Militia." It will accordingly be necessary in the case of certain formal documents, e.g., attestations, to use the word "Militia," but, beyond this formal use, that word will not be utilized in connection with the force, which will be known as the "Supplementary Reserve."

continued.

26. Liability.—Reservists of the Supplementary Reserve will form part of the First Class Army Reserve. They will be liable, under Section 14 (2) of the Reserve Forces Act of 1882, to serve in any part of the world on mobilization. THEY WILL BE LIABLE TO BE CALLED OUT WHEN THE ARMY RESERVE, OR ANY PART OF IT, IS CALLED OUT BY PROCLAMATION.

The liability to be called out in aid of the civil power will not, however, be enforced.

When called out on service, they will become in all respects soldiers of the regular forces.

27. Eligibility to enlist.—Men with the necessary qualifications may be enlisted from—

- (a) civil life, for Categories B and C ;
- (b) the Territorial Army for Category B only.

A man enlisting from the Territorial Army will, on final approval, be deemed to be discharged from his Territorial Army engagement from the day previous to that on which he is attested for the Supplementary Reserve.

28. Terms of enlistment.—(a) Personnel of Category B will be enlisted on Army Form B 284* for a period of 4 years, with power, if accepted, to re-engage for 1, 2, 3 or 4 years. All enlistments will be carried out under instructions issued by the Territorial Army Associations concerned in accordance with instructions issued from the War Office from time to time.

(b) Personnel of Category C will be enlisted on Army Form B 285* for periods of 2, 3 or 4 years, with power to re-engage as in the case of Category B personnel. All enlistments will be carried out at Army Recruiting Offices in accordance with instructions issued from the War Office from time to time.

29. Age limits.—The ages for enlistment and for re-engagement will be the age limits in force for the Territorial Army, except that men enlisted for service as tradesmen may be retained up to, but not beyond, 45 years, provided that they are qualified in their trades and are able to pass the necessary tests.

30. Army numbers.—Army numbers will be allotted to all personnel enlisted into the Supplementary Reserve under the provisions of paragraph 1683, King's Regulations, 1923.

* A distribution of these forms will be made in due course.

31. Tradesmen.—Men applying to be enlisted as tradesmen will not be accepted for enlistment unless they produce a certificate of trade proficiency from their employers. They will be liable to be tested as to trade proficiency under Army arrangements after their enlistment, and if they fail to qualify they will be liable to be discharged. If unemployed, men will be required to undergo a trade test before enlistment. A.O. 285

continued.

In no circumstances will they be entitled to draw a higher rate of pay than that of Class III of the group to which their trade is allotted, until they have been tested and have qualified under Army arrangements.

Category B Supplementary Reservists will not be entitled to receive tradesmen's rates of pay during annual training until they have complied with the ordinary Territorial Army requirement as to satisfying a Board of Officers (see paragraph 160, Territorial Army Regulations, 1924).

32. Enlistments into Regular Army.—Reservists of the Supplementary Reserve will be eligible to enlist into the Regular Army in accordance with the instructions contained in paragraph 85 (as amended by Army Order 541 of 1921), Recruiting Regulations, 1922.

Tradesmen enlisting from the Supplementary Reserve into the Regular Army will be entitled to draw tradesmen's rates of pay as regular soldiers only if they pass the required trade test on enlisting.

33. Recruiting rewards.—Recruiting rewards will be paid in respect of recruits of both Categories B and C of the Supplementary Reserve at the following rates:—

35. Permission to lead a seafaring life.—A reservist of Category C wishing to lead a seafaring life will be permitted to do so on application to the officer i/c records concerned. On his return from sea he must at once report himself, by letter, to the officer i/c records.

Permission will not be granted to a reservist of Category B to lead a seafaring life.

36. Bounties.—(a) Men enlisting into the Supplementary Reserve will receive annual bounties as under:—

continued.

(b) Instalments of bounties will be payable quarterly in arrear on 1st January, 1st April, 1st July and 1st October in each year with the exceptions stated in sub-paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) below.

(c) The grant of bounty will be conditional upon the reservist residing in Great Britain or Northern Ireland and reporting quarterly to the officer i/c records or other appointed authority, and, in the case of men in Category B, performing the prescribed training. No bounty will be admissible in the case of a reservist in Category B who enlists into the Royal Navy, Regular Army or Royal Air Force before completing recruit training as prescribed for Territorial Army personnel. Any issue that has been made will be recovered.

(d) The issue of these bounties will cease in all cases during periods of mobilization but no deduction therefrom will be made in respect of periods of training. Any instalment of bounty falling due when the reservist is in prison or detention, or in custody or on bail on a charge of which he is subsequently convicted, will be forfeited.

(e) A reservist in Category B, who is absent from annual training (except with leave or as specified below) will forfeit the instalments of the bounty ordinarily payable between the date of such training and that on which he subsequently completes training. Three-fourths of the bounty so forfeited may, however, be restored to the reservist on the authority of his commanding officer upon completion of the annual training next after the one from which he was absent.

No further instalments of bounty will be paid to a reservist who is absent from training through sickness, or is on sick leave on the last day of the training, unless and until he either completes the next training or is discharged in a state of medical unfitness before the date of its completion. On completing the next training, or being so discharged he may be paid arrears of such bounty.

37. Payments on enlistment.—The following payments will be made to men who present themselves for enlistment into the Supplementary Reserve :—

(a) To men accepted.—An advance of half a quarter's Reserve bounty at the rates set forth in paragraph 36 (a), above. Men whose technical ability is not proved to the satisfaction of the recruiting officers will be required to undergo a trade test before being accepted. No advance of bounty will be made to such men until the recruiting officer is notified that the test has been satisfactorily passed.

- (ii) If the man satisfies the recruiting officer that he has lost half a day's work or less ... 5s.

No payment of compensation for loss of work will be made to any man who is not in regular civil employment, nor will it be made in any case until the recruiting officer is satisfied as to the genuineness of the application.

38. Pay and Allowances.—(a) Reservists in Category B will receive during training and mobilization pay and allowances at the rates and under the conditions laid down for men of the Territorial Army, except that the gratuity on mobilization, under paragraph 651, Territorial Army Regulations, 1924, will not be admissible. In addition to the bounties referred to in paragraph 36(a), they will be eligible for bounties at the same rates and under the same conditions as for men of the Territorial Army in each year in which the necessary training is performed. If qualified for the trained soldiers' bounty in the Territorial Army, they will be eligible for that bounty also in the Supplementary Reserve.

Reservists in Category C will receive on mobilization pay and allowances at the rates and under the conditions laid down for soldiers of the Regular Army.

(b) Unmobilized service in the Supplementary Reserve will not count towards the period of service required for increment of pay, proficiency pay or time promotion.

39. Purchase of discharge.—The amount payable for purchase of discharge will be £12 except in the case of men who purchase discharge within 3 months of enlistment in which case the amount will be £6. In all cases the bounty for the current quarter will be forfeited in addition. In the case of recruits the portion of the bounty issued in advance on enlistment will be refunded in addition to the payment of £6 as a condition of discharge.

1. All officers commissioned into the Supplementary Reserve will be liable to serve in the event of an emergency with any unit of His Majesty's Forces in any part of the world. They will be liable to be called out on service when the Army Reserve or any part of it is called out by proclamation. They will not be required to serve in aid of the Civil Power in a domestic emergency.

2. To be eligible for a commission in the Supplementary Reserve, a candidate must fulfil the conditions as to age and character, and be in possession of the educational and technical qualifications laid down in Army Order 285 of 1924.

3. With a few exceptions, all officers will be required to carry out preliminary training during their first year of service and annual training during peace, except in the case of such officers as will perform on mobilization duties similar to their peace time profession. Details as to training are laid down in Army Order 285 of 1924.

4. Officers of the Supplementary Reserve will receive an annual gratuity of £25, provided that they reside within Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and carry out the prescribed training. continued.

2. Designation.—The statutory authority for the provision of a Supplementary Reserve is the Reserve Forces Act of 1882, and the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act of 1907, as modified by the Territorial Army and Militia Act of 1921. Under the latter Act the use of the term "Special Reserve" has been abolished in favour of the term "Militia," and the Reserve which will now be formed will therefore be in law "Militia." It will accordingly be necessary in the case of certain formal documents, e.g., attestations, to use the word "Militia," but, beyond this formal use, that word will not be utilized in connection with the force, which will be known as the "Supplementary Reserve."

3. Militia.—The Royal Monmouthshire and Royal Anglesey Royal Engineers will be absorbed as units (Army Troops companies) of the Supplementary Reserve, retaining their present titles.

Remaining units and personnel of the Militia will not be affected.

4. Recruiting.—Recruiting for other ranks of the Supplementary Reserve will be opened on 1st October, 1924, but the nomination of officers may be proceeded with at once.

II.—GENERAL ORGANIZATION.

5. Organization.—The Supplementary Reserve will consist of officers belonging to the Supplementary Reserve of Officers, and other ranks who will form part of the First Class Army Reserve.

Officers and other ranks will be divided into categories as follows :—

Category A.—This corresponds to Category (a) of the former Special Reserve, i.e., personnel belonging to units having a regular permanent staff. No personnel of this category will be raised at present.

Category B.—All personnel of this Category will be required to undergo training in peace.

In certain cases they will be organized in units in peace. Those not in units will form a reserve for the corps to which they belong, being available for use on mobilization as required.

They are required for the following corps :—

Category C.—Personnel of this Category will not be required to undergo training in peace and will consist of personnel who, in the event of being called to the Colours, will be required to perform duties similar to their profession or occupation in civil life. They will not be organized in units in peace.

Personnel of this Category are required for the following corps :—

Royal Artillery.
Royal Engineers (Transportation).

AND WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to extend the provisions of Our said Warrant (as amended by this Our Warrant) so as to provide for similar increases to the pensions of pensioners residing outside the British Isles.

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that such modifications shall be applied in the manner indicated in the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 7th day of August, 1924, in the 15th year of Our Reign.

SCHEDULE.

1. As from 1st July, 1923, the Warrant dated 16th August, 1920,* will, as respects retired pay or pensions not exceeding £100, be deemed to have had effect as if the percentages by which existing pensions may be increased were—

- (a) in the case of an existing pension not exceeding £25 a year, 70 per cent. instead of 50 per cent. ;
- (b) in the case of an existing pension exceeding £25 a year but not exceeding £50 a year, 65 per cent. instead of 50 per cent. ; and,

Any disability element will be assessed for this purpose according to the degree of disablement on which the existing pension is based.

Apart from these amendments, the conditions laid down in Army Order 347 of 1920 remain in force.

* Army Order 231 of 1920.

SCHEDULE.

The following amendments will be made to the Schedule attached to Army Order 231 of 1920 :—

1. For paragraph 17 substitute—

17. Candidates for non-commissioned rank.

A.O. 289.
1924.

(i) Serving soldiers.—Candidates for non-commissioned rank in the Army Educational Corps will be required to hold the Army Special Certificate of Education and, if selected after an interview, to attend a course of one or two terms' duration at the Army School of Education as under :—

A.O. 289
continued.

- (a) Warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men who have obtained a "distinguished" at an ordinary course, and who, after subsequent employment as teachers in their own units under the supervision of the local Army Educational Corps officer, are recommended for transfer on probation to the Army Educational Corps—one term (10 weeks).
- (b) Other warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men recommended for transfer on probation to the Army Educational Corps—two terms (20 weeks.)

During this course they will be paid at their own corps rates and will be borne on the strength of their own corps.

They will not fill a vacancy in the establishment of the Army Educational Corps.

On conclusion of the course they will return to their own units, and, if reported on satisfactorily by the Commandant of the Army School of Education, will be transferred on probation to fill vacancies in the Army Educational Corps as they occur.

(ii) Civilians.—Candidates will be required to hold a certificate of equivalent standing to the Army Special Certificate of Education. If selected after an interview they will be enlisted as serjeants on probation in the Army Educational Corps and will fill vacancies therein.

Candidates who are teachers with more than 2 years' experience in secondary schools recognized by the Board of Education, or certificated teachers, will ordinarily attend one term (10 weeks) and other candidates two terms (20 weeks) at the Army School of Education before being posted to a unit or station for duty as instructors.

2. For paragraph 18 substitute—

18. Probationary period.

All appointments to the Army Educational Corps will be subject to a probationary period exclusive of any period of training. Previous service in Army educational duties may be accepted as probationary service for the purpose of confirmation of appointments.

A.O. 289.

Army Orders.—August, 1924.

A.O. 289 The probationary period will be as follows :—

continued.

Officers	1 year.
Serjeants enlisted on probation under paragraph 17 (ii)	1 year.
Non-commissioned officers below the rank of serjeant and men transferred on probation under paragraph 17 (i)	6 months.
Warrant officers and non-commissioned officers not below the rank of serjeant transferred on probation under paragraph 17 (i)	3 months.

Regular officers whilst on probation will be seconded in their present units and appointed temporarily to the Army Educational Corps, thus filling a vacancy in the establishment of that Corps.

Warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men transferred on probation to the Army Educational Corps will be paid at the rate for serjeants if already not below that rank (7s. or 9s. per diem according to classification for pay in the Corps from which they are transferred), otherwise at the rate for serjeants on probation under paragraph 1. They will fill vacancies for serjeants in the establishment of the Army Educational Corps, and will also be borne on the establishment of their previous corps.

They will be struck off the strength of their previous corps on conclusion of the probationary period, if recommended for final transfer to the Army Educational Corps.

2. Outfit grant will not in the absence of further instructions be made to officers appointed to the Supplementary Reserve of Officers who do not undergo training in peace. These officers will receive such grant as it may be decided to grant to officers commissioned temporarily during an emergency.

3. Officers transferred from the Territorial Army will be ineligible for the outfit grant in view of their being already in possession of the necessary uniform.

4. Officers transferred from the Regular Army Reserve of Officers and Territorial Army Reserve and candidates accepted for the Supplementary Reserve who have previous service in the Regular Forces (permanent or temporary) Special Reserve, Militia, Yeomanry, Territorial Force or Territorial Army will be eligible for a refund of such portion of the grant as is necessary to cover the actual expenditure on the alteration of outfit already in their possession or the supplementing of it to bring it up to the approved scale. The grant will be subject to the conditions of paragraph 6.

5. (a) The grant under paragraph 1 will be claimed from the regimental paymaster on Army Form O 1671.

(b) Claims for grants under paragraph 4 will be forwarded to the regimental paymaster on Army Form O 1671, and supported by receipted bills showing, in detail, the articles purchased or altered and the amounts paid, and a certificate to the effect that such purchases or alterations were necessary to complete the outfit. 7. If an officer is called upon to resign his commission or is removed for misconduct, such resignation or removal will not exempt him from the liability to refund the amount of any outfit grant paid to him, subject to the conditions in paragraph 6.

8. An officer will be exempt from the conditions in paragraph 6 (c) and (d), if he has—

- (a) obtained Certificate B in the Officers Training Corps, under the conditions laid down in the Regulations for the Officers Training Corps, or
- (b) passed for promotion to the rank of captain in the Regular Army.

9. Officers appointed to the Supplementary Reserve of Officers will not be eligible for an issue of camp kit in kind, or for an allowance in lieu. On mobilization they will be dealt with on the same lines as Territorial Army officers.

II.—ANNUAL GRATUITY.

10. An officer of the Supplementary Reserve will be granted, in arrear, at the conclusion of each year's service in the Supplementary Reserve a gratuity of £25, provided that he has—

An officer who is absent from Great Britain or Northern Ireland for more than 6 months in any one year will in no circumstances be granted the gratuity.

12. An officer of Category B who fails in any one year to carry out annual training through sickness, or who obtains prior permission of the G.O.C.-in-C. to absent himself from training, will be granted the gratuity. 15. The gratuity will not be issuable while an officer is called up in an emergency.

18. The recruiting rewards and other payments made in respect of men enlisting under Army Order 285 of 1924 will be charged by recruiting officers on Army Form N 1542 (Militia Recruiting Pay List).

19. Further instructions regarding method of accounting will shortly be issued to regimental paymasters.

In such cases the service may be carried out by the troops by the spare time employment of military labour and regimental first line transport, any necessary cash expenditure being met from private funds. No charge will be made for such labour or transport; nor, if the execution of the service is supervised by the Engineers, will any charge for “overheads” to cover such supervision be made against the troops, provided that the C.R.E. is satisfied that it can be carried out without prejudice to the normal work of the Engineers.

Entries regarding such services will not be made in the D.O's. construction account. If ordnance or engineer stores are used from stock they will be paid for in cash at the vocabulary price, as in the case of sales.

11a. Light Pile Driving.

A.O. 330. Piles of light scantling may be driven by men with 1924. mauls or by means of what is called a Swiss pile driver. This is an arrangement whereby each pile supports the guide for the monkey. A vertical hole, a foot in depth, A.O. 330 is bored axially in the centre of the head of the pile. 1924

 In this hole is temporarily placed a guide rod for the continued.
 monkey, which is bored with a hole of a size which allows it to slide easily on the guide rod. This rod may be made of a 6-foot length of 1-inch bar iron while the monkey may be a block of hard wood about 3 feet long, with iron bands on either end to prevent splitting, and four handles of $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch iron served with rope or spunyarn. (Fig. 1). If there is no time to prepare these handles, short ones projecting at right angles may be made to serve, but they are not so convenient as those described above. The monkey should not exceed 130 lbs. in weight for use by four men. The speed of driving will be increased if the platform for the men is attached to the pile.

Demands for Army Forms, Army Books and Stationery.*—1. A.O. 422.
With reference to Army Order 502 of 1921 and paragraphs 630 and 631, Allowance Regulations, 1924, it has been decided that units at home shall submit half-yearly instead of quarterly demands for Army Forms, Army Books and stationery. 1924.

2. In order, however, that demands may be evenly distributed over the year, only the following arms of the service will demand a six months' supply when rendering their indents on 1st January, 1st February, or 1st March, 1925 :—

A.F. L 1351	R.A. Establishments ; Fire Commands ; R.A. Depot and Schools.	} 1st January.

* For detailed amendments to the regulations concerned see Army Orders 437 and 438 of 1924.

Army Orders.—November, 1924.

A.O. 422 In the case of all other units their first indents in 1925 1924 will be for a three months' supply as hitherto, but their continued. second indents on 1st April, 1st May or 1st June, 1925, will be for a six months' supply.

All subsequent indents will be rendered half-yearly, and will be for a six-months' supply in the case of all units.

3. In the case of all Territorial Army and Supplementary Reserve units the first half-yearly supply will be demanded in the indents due to be made on 1st April, 1925. For divisional headquarters the date will be 1st May, 1925.

4. To secure, in the fullest measure, the various economies which will result from this change, it is essential that units when preparing their demands should very carefully estimate all their probable requirements during the ensuing six months and thereby obviate the necessity for supplementary indents.

Certificate D.

This certificate will be furnished either by a G.O.C. or by a Colonel Commandant and will state that he has personally made himself thoroughly acquainted with the professional qualifications and character of the officer and that he considers him in all respects fit for employment on the staff and for command of troops in the field. It will be based upon a period of attachment of not less than four weeks' duration to the staff of the commander by whom the certificate is rendered. This attachment will be carried out at such a period as will ensure a thorough test of the officer's capacity for command and for staff employment both in the field and in an office. In the case of an officer serving in an appointment or a command where it is impossible to observe his work in the field, arrangements will be made for his attachment to the staff of a commander at some other place where the spirit of these regulations can be carried out. Except as a special case, with regard to which reference must be made to the War Office, this certificate will not be accepted if it was signed more than a year before the date of the officer's first application to attend the entrance examination.

A candidate whose certificates have been accepted by the War Office will not be required to furnish this certificate again should he apply to compete at a subsequent examination. The reporting officer, however, in forwarding such subsequent application, will make any remarks which he may consider useful to higher authority.

In the case of an officer who has been accepted for the Staff College, Quetta, and is competing for the first time for the Staff College, Camberley, a copy of this certificate as accepted by the Commander-in-Chief, India, or a fresh certificate, will be furnished.

It is desirable that an officer should give notice through his C.O. of his wish to compete at an examination before the beginning of the training season preceding the date on which his application is to be submitted to the War Office, in order that the G.O.C. or Colonel Commandant may be in a position to furnish this certificate when the candidate's application reaches him in due course.

Army Orders.—December, 1924.

A.O. 475 Note.—An officer who furnishes certificate D must bear in mind the extreme importance of it. He will not content himself with merely answering the questions asked in it, but will endeavour to report fully and clearly on the candidate's suitability in all respects for the responsible duties of the staff. Both the officer's strong and weak points should be described. In the selection of an officer for nomination to the Staff College this certificate is carefully considered and carries great weight. If an officer, while at the Staff College, proves himself clearly unfitted for staff employment, this fact will be noted by the Army Council as showing a want of judgment and capacity in the officer or officers who recommended him.

3. The firing party or leading detachment will be drawn up two deep, one pace interval between files, facing the building where the body is placed. The corporal will be on that flank of the front rank towards which the procession will move. The serjeant will give all words of command and be posted in rear of the centre. Arms will be at the slope. As soon as the body is brought out of the building by the bearers, the serjeant in charge of the firing party or leading detachment will give the command Present Arms. When the coffin has been placed on the gun carriage or in the hearse and the cortège is ready to move off, he will give the following words of command :—Reverse Arms—Right (or Left) Turn (the corporal taking up his place

continued.

4. (a) The military mourners, band, and drummers with drums muffled will have formed up in two ranks facing inwards with two paces interval between men and eight paces distance between ranks, through which the firing party or leading detachment will pass.

The procession will then move off in the following order :—

- (i) Escort (para. 935) under the orders of the G.O.C.—para. 15 below.
- (ii) Firing party or leading detachment.
- (iii) Band and drummers moving in their proper formation.
- (iv) Body
Pall-bearers } See sub-para. (b).
Bearers
- (v) Mourners (military and civilian).
- (vi) Troops lining the route who are detailed to attend (see para. 935, column 4) will follow in fours commencing on the inner flank; the men reversing arms in succession as they break into slow time.
- (b) Usually, bearers will march on either side of the gun carriage, but, if pall-bearers are present, they will march on either side of the gun carriage, and the bearers immediately in rear of the gun carriage.

5. The band or drums will commence to play the "Dead March" when about 300 yards from the mortuary, and continue for such a distance as the officer in charge may have ordered before marching off. The firing party or leading detachment will receive the command Quick March (the remainder conforming) when the band or drums cease playing.

When at a convenient distance from the cemetery, and at the instance of the officer in charge, the serjeant in charge of the firing party or leading detachment will give the command Slow March, and the band or drums will recommence playing.

6. When marching in slow time arms will be carried at the reverse, in quick time at the trail, as detailed in the various training manuals. During the march, arms may be changed, but the party will not march at ease.

7. When the head of the procession arrives near the ground where it is to meet the officiating minister, and prior to the serjeant in charge of the firing party or leading detachment giving the command Halt, the ranks of the firing party or detachment at the head of the procession, and the band and drums, will open out to six paces distance, and will halt at the command of the serjeant in charge of the firing party or leading detachment. The order will then be given—Inwards Turn—Rest on your Arms Reversed. A.O. 475

continued.

8. The coffin will then be removed by the bearers and carried feet-end foremost to the place of interment (or first to the chapel, if desired), and placed on the right of the grave. The right of the grave is determined by looking towards its head.

The order of the procession will now be : officiating minister, body with pall-bearers and bearers (the former walking behind the body should the path be too narrow to admit of their remaining in their correct positions), mourners, band and drums, firing party. Should the band be required to take part in the service, they and the drums may precede the body to the grave in quick time. In that case they will not open out and halt as detailed in para. 7.

9. The mourners will then file around the grave, halt and turn inwards without word of command ; the firing party will follow the mourners, and will be halted near the grave under the orders of the serjeant in charge, who will give the following commands : Attention—Reverse Arms—Ranks, Right and Left Turn—Slow March—Halt—Left Turn—Rest on your Arms Reversed.

The leading detachment (if present) will be halted at some convenient pre-arranged position at the graveside.

10. During the service at the graveside (except when the actual burial takes place in a sacred building) the head-dress of those attending in uniform in any capacity will not be removed.

11. Prior to the coffin being lowered into the grave, the flag, head-dress, sidearms and wreaths will be removed. At the conclusion of the service, if volleys are to be fired, the serjeant will give the following commands :—Firing Party, Present Arms—Slope Arms—Volleys (with blank cartridges), Load—Present—Fire—(Two more volleys will be similarly fired.)—Unload—Order Arms—Fix Bayonets—Slope Arms—Present Arms. The band (if present) should play after each volley, firing party remaining at the Present. If no volley is fired, the serjeant will give the following commands :—Detachment, Present Arms—Slope Arms—Order Arms—Fix Bayonets—Slope Arms—Present Arms. The buglers will then sound the Last Post—

continued.

12. The band and drums will be formed up ready for moving off.

13. The serjeant in charge of the firing party or leading detachment will now give the commands :—Form Fours—Right—Quick March. The band and drums will lead, followed by the firing party and military mourners, who will form fours as they march off without word of command.

The band will not play, nor the drums beat, until the party is entirely clear of the burial ground.

Bayonets will be unfixed at the earliest opportunity after leaving the place of burial.

14. At funerals where troops are detailed to line the route, they will be required to present arms to the funeral cortège first, and reverse arms before again resting on their arms reversed. They will normally present arms as the head of the funeral cortège approaches them, and rest on their arms reversed as the firing party approaches.

15. At funerals of senior officers the arrangements will be made under the supervision of the G.O.C. If, after detailing certain parts of the escort to line the route, a large portion is still available, the escort will march by companies, in fours, at the head of the procession, and in front of the band and drums. The disposal of escort on arrival at the cemetery will be under local arrangements.

16. Officers attending funerals as mourners will not draw swords, and with other ranks (except the firing party) will march in reverse order of seniority from front to rear.

17. Officers on duty with troops will draw swords. When such troops present arms, officers will salute with their swords as laid down in the various training manuals.

18. Should it happen that officers on duty with troops proceed to the graveside for the service, they will return their swords before reaching that place.

19. During the sounding of the Last Post, all troops under arms (except the firing party) will stand at attention and officers will salute, but not whilst Reveille is being sounded.

20. In the case of the funeral of a mounted officer or soldier, a charger or suitable horse will be led by a soldier immediately behind the gun carriage. The jack
